RE:

Dear Ron:

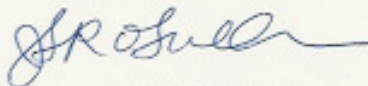

I have been in the construction business since 1957 and have about 80 employees. I have been conducting business in the Chicagoland area and have dealt with many different employees and contractors.

I wanted to express to you that you have been one of the most efficient, pleasant and professional contractors that I have ever come across. According to my neighbor, you have done a wonderful job and she is fussier than I am.

If you ever need a reference, please have them call me and I will be happy to recommend your services.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

James (Bob) O'Sullivan
